

Eric Wirtanen

Environmental Scientist

Education: Bridgewater State College (BS in Earth Science – January 2005)
Cape Cod Community College (AA in Liberal Arts – May 2002)

Qualifications:

- OSHA 29 CFR 1910.120 - 40-Hour HAZWOPER training
- OSHA 29 CFR 1910.120 – 8 Hour Refresher training
- Massachusetts Certified Asbestos Inspector License # 41840
- Time Management training – Rockhurst University
- Community First Aid and Safety certified

Experience: Mr. Wirtanen possesses a strong background in GIS and the geosciences. Mr. Wirtanen's experience also includes Wetland Protection Act permit applications and mitigation activities, all facets of environmental site assessments, field sampling, measurements and documentation as required of an Environmental Scientist and report writing. Mr. Wirtanen also performs solid waste facility compliance inspections, sampling and asbestos inspections.

Supplementary Information:

August 2005 – Present

Green Seal Environmental, Inc.

- Environmental Scientist responsible for Environmental Site Assessment research, inspections, review of environmental regulatory agency database information and writing reports.
 - Preparation of permit applications for Solid Waste facilities
 - Field screening and sampling of surface water, groundwater, air and soil for laboratory analysis
 - Technical writing for various projects including solid waste and hazardous waste sites
-

2005

United States Geological Survey

- Assistant: Updated maps, track charts, and databases & scanned documents relating to marine geology and geochemistry using programs such as Microsoft Access and ArcGIS software.
 - Technical writing for various projects relating to marine geology
-